

John Neale (1612 – 1680)

*All Hallows Church, Upper Dean, Bedfordshire
Buried 9th November 1680*

Memorial inscription in lady chapel, to the South of the chancel, topped by Neale arms:

Hic juxta reconditur
IOHANNES NEALE
De Deane in Comitatu Bedford Ac
Progenitus ex decem liberis
Iohannes Neale Armig. Qui Uxorem
Duxit ANNAM filia Henrici Cromwell
De Vpwood in Comitatu Hunt Armig
Ex qua nati errant duo filii Iohannes,
Henricus, tres filiae Anna,
Bridgetta, Elizabetha

Natus 20 december 1612
Denatus 28 october 1680

Vir bonus et Pius

Translation:

In this place lies
JOHN NEALE
Of Dean in the area of Bedford and
The first son of the ten children of
JOHN NEALE, bearer of arms, who led as his wife
ANNA daughter of Henry Cromwell
Of Upwood in the area of Huntingdonshire, bearer of arms.
From whom was born two sons John,
Henry, three daughters Anna,
Bridget, Elizabeth

Born 20th December 1612
Departed 28th October 1680

A Man Good and Pious

*Recorded and translated by David Bartlett
(Great x10 grandson)
20th June 2007*

ENDS.